Barbara Braunstein

Travels from: Florida

Fee Range: $2,500 - $5,000

Barbara Braunstein is an internationally acclaimed speaker, known for her energetic, fast-paced, humorous style and her very practical and doable strategies and information. She presents keynotes and break out sessions to thousands of people at regional and national conventions, conferences and meetings.

Barbara has hands-on, real life experience as a manager in the airline industry, health care field, sports world and as a business owner. She's also a former model and competitive tennis player. She uses all that experience to relate to every situation audience members face on a daily basis.

If Barbara opens your meeting, she sets a positive and energizing start. If she presents at lunchtime, she gets everyone interacting, moving and ready for the rest of the day. And if she closes your meeting, you can be sure that everyone leaves upbeat and ready to tackle the world.
